

*The Training Interdisciplinary Educational Scientists (TIES)
Fellowship & the Child Study Center at the Pennsylvania State University present*

The TIES Summer Institute
Fostering Positive Social and Behavioral Contexts for Learning: Engaging Parents, Supporting Teachers, and Promoting Adolescent Resilience

Abstract

The TIES Summer Institute will focus on several aspects of student risk. Presenters will focus on research related to student risk and resilience across three panels. Drs. Beth Stormshak (University of Oregon), Joshua Brown (Fordham University), and Joanna Lee Williams (University of Virginia) will lead panels on engaging parents, supporting teachers, and promoting adolescent resilience, respectively.

Monday, May 8
8:30 AM – 5:00 PM

Tuesday, May 9
9:00 AM – 2:15 PM

127 Moore Building, University Park

Contact Erica Culler (edc136@psu.edu) with questions.

This publication is available in alternative media on request. Penn State encourages qualified persons with disabilities to participate in its programs and activities. If you anticipate needing any type of accommodation or have questions about the physical access provided, please consult Erica Culler (814-865-8483) in advance of your participation or visit. Penn State is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer, and is committed to providing employment opportunities to all qualified applicants without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability or protected veteran status. U.Ed. LBS 17-336